Required Supplementary Materials

If you are applying for a school fee waiver, please explain, in detail, why your school fee should be waived. This could include information about the support your school provides, the impact that attending MSUMUN has on your delegates, or individual testimonials from advisors and/or students about why attending MSUMUN is important and could not be achieved without financial aid.

If you are applying for financial aid to assist individual students, please include an essay of no more than one single spaced page from each student applying for aid, discussing what you are most passionate about and how MSUMUN helps you exercise your passions.

If you are electronically sending the materials, send them to both Sloane Fisher, Undersecretary-General of Finance, and Justin Fernando, Undersecretary-General of External Affairs, at finance@msumun.org and externalaffairs@msumun.org, respectively. Please include Sloane and Justin in one email and use the subject line "Scholarship for [School Name]." If you are physically sending the materials, send them to
